

School Governor Vacancies at Newton Burgoland Primary School

Newton Burgoland Primary School is looking for new Governors to join the governing body. This is an important role in maintaining the high standards that the school is known for. The commitment amounts to about 2 or 3 hours a month and includes attending board meetings (1 per term) and being involved in one of the sub-committees. We would welcome applicants from a wide range of backgrounds and experiences. If you would like more information or would like to put your name forward please send an email to me at clerk@newburland.leics.sch.uk

James Dodds, Chair of Governors.
